Oceanic Linguistics was created at the request of the Panel on Research Needs in Pacific Languages of the Tenth Pacific Science Congress in 1961. Its object is to provide competent information and better communication across national boundaries on current research bearing on the languages of the Oceanic area. Priority is given to languages of the Austro-nesian family (including European-based pidgins and creoles), although articles on Papuan or Australian languages may be considered, as space permits.

Oceanic Linguistics is published twice a year and is available in print and online for both individuals and institutions. Subscribe at <https://www.uhpress.hawaii.edu/title/ol/>. Please visit http://muse.jhu.edu/journals/oceanic_linguistics to browse issues and tables of contents online. Standard gloss abbreviations are to be found at <http://www.eva.mpg.de/lingua/files/morpheme.html>.

Claims for non-receipt of issues will be honored if claim is made within 180 days of the month of publication. Thereafter, the regular back-issue rate will be charged for replacement. Inquiries are received at uhpjourn@hawaii.edu or by phone at 1-888- UHPRESS or 808-956-8833.

Submissions are accepted electronically via the new web portal (<https://oceaniclinguistics.msubmit.net>) and editorial inquiries should be addressed to the editors at oceanicl@hawaii.edu. See inside back cover for instructions for contributors.
