I GOT IT

---

Carolyn Sundy

Some people say I am a mountain mama,
Because I grew up in the valley near a creek.
Some people say I would never fit in
Because I don't have it and can't find it.
I might be a mountain mama but
I didn't have to look very far,
Right there in front of me was it,
On my left side was it,
On my right side was it,
I was surrounded with it.
My body was covered in it and
It stuck to me like a second skin.
It was my love for me,
That made me love others.
It was my self-confidence that
I had so much I had to share it.
It was my willingness to respect others,
It made them respect me.
This very moment, I realize I got it
And you just want it.
