THIS MAGAZINE

APPALACHIAN HERITAGE was founded in 1973 by Albert Stewart at Alice Lloyd College in Pippa Passes, Kentucky, and has been published since 1985 by Berea College, Berea, Kentucky. It is currently a program of the College's Loyal Jones Appalachian Center.

APPALACHIAN HERITAGE is distributed by the University of North Carolina Press: uncpress_journals@unc.edu. Subscriptions are $30 a year for individuals and $40 a year for libraries.

Our website <http://community.berea.edu/appalachianheritage/> provides information on upcoming literary events and many more features of interest about the magazine. It is illustrated with gorgeous photos by Dean Hill <http://www.deanhillphotography.com/>.

Our Facebook page offers photos, news, and features:
<http://www.facebook.com/appalachianheritagemagazine>.

Back issues are available from the editorial offices of Appalachian Heritage, CPO 2166, Berea, Kentucky 40404. Single issues are $10 each, including shipping. Reduced rates for multiple copies are explained on our website: <http://community.berea.edu/appalachianheritage/getbackissues.html>.

The full text of APPALACHIAN HERITAGE is available online through Project Muse: <http://muse.jhu.edu/>. In addition EBSCO and Gale make content from Appalachian Heritage available electronically.

A comprehensive index to all back issues from our founding in 1973 is available on our website: <http://community.berea.edu/appalachianheritage/indices/default.html>

APPALACHIAN HERITAGE is available in an audio version for the blind and visually impaired from Central Kentucky Radio Eye: <http://libguides.uky.edu/ckre>. Each year the National Archive Publishing Company —<http://www.napubco.com/umi.html>—makes our magazine available in microform.
