Erratum

Due to an error, we did not update the contributors' information for Alissa Klots in Kritika 19, 3 (Summer 2018). The text should have read:

ALISSA KLOTS is Assistant Professor of History at the European University at St. Petersburg. She is currently preparing a book manuscript, The Kitchen Maid That Will Rule the State: Domestic Service in the Soviet Union. Her most recent publication is "The Kitchen Maid as Revolutionary Symbol: Paid Domestic Labour and the Emancipation of Soviet Women, 1917–1941," in The Palgrave Handbook on Women and Gender in Twentieth-Century Russia and the Soviet Union, edited by Melanie Ilić (2018), 83–100. She is also collaborating with Maria Romashova on a project on aging under socialism.

Our apologies to Professor Klots for the mistake.
