Bomb of My Hometown Sings the Balm of My Hometown¹

furrow 1

the well-done old fragrance of my flesh is a living mountain of bones bleeding with flowers with lucky peach flowers, fuzzy flesh flowers, real baby azaleas a crying spell, a fire ritual, a recovering metal petal palace neighborhood

circle dance 1

bomb of my hometown
i try to hold on to the grime from my time playing in my body

furrow 2

flower independence, bird independence peak village, new village my not yet ancient birthplace village where
when desire calls
from the south of blue
et cetera weeping
willows dance
in the creek
of net songs

home bomb
i miss becoming inside the morning glow there

¹ "Bomb of My Hometown Sings the Balm of My Hometown" is an experimental translation of the Korean children's song "고향의 봄" (Gohyangui bom).

my late habitus incense
vapes acid marrow
flavored in peach, apricot & honey-transmission-flower
HD rainbow
a huge vacancy filled
with Kpop beauties
a movement of yes

home balm
um, to pine for the perfect moment playing in mind

furrow 4

a botanical garden
a gathering of distances
my former former hometown

when the wind whistles
in from the troubled
fields of otherplace
the community where development buddies
rave in streams

circle dance 4

balm of my hometown
god, how i long for the springtime i stayed free of labor inside
